MORNING IN THE RED HILLS

AN ACTIVITY BOOK

Joe Cowdrey, Artist
Drawing inspiration from the iconic attributes of the Red Hills Region, Joe Cowdrey sets the scene for a misty morning in the longleaf pine forest, and portrays the fresh and clean water of our region in two magical murals. He honors our wildlife and land as a critical resource to conserve.

Joe Cowdrey is a self-taught painter from Tallahassee, FL. He draws his main inspiration from the natural landscapes he explores on a regular basis, wherever he may be located. Environment is very important to him, and it is his hope that people are able to share his appreciation for the beauty of the forest after seeing his works. Joe currently lives and works in Northern New Jersey.

WHO AM I?

My burrow provides shelter to hundreds of different animals like frogs, owls, and even endangered indigo snakes.

Can you connect the dots to find out who I am?

Answer: Gopher Tortoise
